A dramatic well built custom home with 4 bedrooms, designed by Venezuelan architect Ricardo Iglicky, set on 4.16± acres. Soaring cathedral ceilings, beautifully finished hardwood floors, floor-to-ceiling windows that capture the southerly exposure, extensive pastoral meadows, and views of the Green Mountain Range. Exceptional wood paneling on walls and ceiling grace the spacious living area and home office. The 2-sided fireplace services both the formal dining room and the sitting area. The ensuite master bedroom, with striking cathedral ceiling and windows that flood the beautiful spacious room with light, has a luxurious master bath with Jacuzzi and steam room. The upper level of the home offers two private ensuite bedrooms. The lower level with its own bar is a wonderful space for entertaining guest and family. This special property is located in the heart of Stowe...close to Stowe Mt. Resort and picturesque Stowe Village.
